

ELEVATE YOUR GAME

DEEPEN
YOUR IMPACT

The National Urban Fellows (NUF)

The National Urban Fellows offers the only cohort-based program that includes targeted national recruiting of exemplary BIPOC candidates, a fully-funded Master's degree from Georgetown University, full-time residencies at renowned partner institutions, mentoring by committed senior executives, and ongoing leadership development support with a focus on racial equity.

TARGETED NATIONAL RECRUITING & VETTING

WORLD CLASS
EDUCATION

HANDS ON PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

MENTORSHIP + COACHING

RACIAL EQUITY
FOCUS

COMMUNITY OF FELLOWS + ALUMNI

"Imagine if you could take five years' worth of career experience and boil it down to a 14-month period of time... That's the kind of acceleration that NUF provides."

Omar Suarez (Class of 2020)

Current Role:
Director of Partnerships, Outreach, Public Affairs, NYC Campaign Finance Board
NUF Residency:
Surdna Foundation, Inclusive Economies Team
Previous Role:
NY Director, Dominicans United USA

Full-Time, 14-month Leadership Accelerator

On-site Fellow residency at host organization

Fellow Mid-Year Retreat

Current & Past Host Agency Partners

Mentorships lend exceptional diverse social impact-oriented professionals to serve as analysts, facilitators, and project leads in sponsoring organizations.

Fellows infuse Mentor organizations with new tools, knowledge, skills, and perspectives.

Mentorship placements can result in deepening, broadening, and diversifying the organization's talent pipeline.

LEARN MORE

BECOME A MENTOR

Host a National Urban Fellow at your site for a 9-month residency to support work on a number of special projects, such as developing a racial equity strategy, assessing the social impact of the organization's programs, or implementing capacity-building initiatives to strengthen core operations.

Complete our MENTOR INTEREST FORM

BECOME A FELLOW

Take the next step in your leadership journey to deepen your impact by sharpening your skills, expanding your network, and broadening your experience.

Complete our FELLOW INTEREST FORM

